A confluence of immensely talented pool of people from all walk of life - housewife, student to executive, come together to form our Group ‘Pragjyotish Bihu Husari Group’. The year was 2010.

Living in Delhi, away from home, we all share a common cause. That is Our Spirit of Culture. And promote our traditional art Bihu Dance.

Our aim is to keep our rich heritage in its own authentic form and promote our BIHU-HUSARI dance amongst people living outside Assam.

How far we succeed, that will be determined by how much you appreciate our performance. Thank you.
Smt. Reem Pathak. Leads the group. She is an accomplished artist. A bachelor degree holder from Bhatkhande, Lucknow in Hindustani Classical music having decades of experience performing at Radio and TV in major cities of India.

With Cuckoo’s calling
Comes Bahag (Baisakh) - new year begins

New leaves in Bamboo tree - sight of Kupow Phool (Wild Orchid) and song of Cuckoo remind us that

Now the time has come -

Time to sing
Time to dance
Time to celebrate
Time to forgive
Time to pay respect to the elders
Time to share love
Time to get together
Time when hearts break
And time when hearts meet
It is just the time to dissolve into the sound and pulsating Rhythm of Dhol, Pepa and Gagana.

Here is the Spirit that draws us to rejoice and share our Heritage - BIHU DANCE with you all.
